TARRANT'S
SELTZER
APERIENT.
Sects and Creeds Differ, but there are no dissenters from the general principle, that a great medicine is a great blessing. We have many of these blessings, but among them all, in the province to which it belongs, no greater than Tarrant's Effervescent Seltzer Aperient.
A column would not suffice to enumerate the ailments for which it is prescribed by physicians of the highest standing. It does not belong to the class derisively termed patent medicines, but is an article based on scientific analysis, and will stand the test of the sharpest and most rigid medical criticism as a cathartic, a stomachic, an anti-febrile preparation, and an admirable remedy for all bilious complaints.
Let there be no mistake. Secure the genuine article only. SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS.

FLOUR! FLOUR!
AHEAD OF EVERYTHING!
The Peerless St. Louis.
TRY A BARREL.
JOHN O. PECKHAM,
my19 Commercial Wharf.

Nell Natine's Wedding.

Take my cloak—and now fix my veil Jenny:—
(How silly to cover one's face!
I might as well be an old woman;
But then there's one comfort—it's lace.)
Well, what has become of those ushers!
Oh, Pa! have you got my bouquet?—
I'll freeze standing here in the lobby—
Why doesn't the organist play?—
They're started at last—what a bustle!
Stop, Pa?—they've not far enough—wait!
One minute more—now!—do keep step, Pa!
There, drop my trail, Jane!—Is it straight?
(I hope I look timid and shrinking;
The church must be perfectly full.)
Good gracious! now don't walk so fast Pa!—
(He don't seem to think that trains pull.)
(The chancel at last,) Mind the step, Pa;
I don't feel embarassed at all—
But, my, what's the minister saying?
Oh, I know, that about Saint Paul.
I hope my position is graceful;
How awkwardly Nellie Dane stood!)
"Not lawfully be joined together
Now speak—(as if any one would!—
Oh, dear; now it's my turn to answer—
I do wish that Pa would stand still.)
"Serve him, love, honor and keep him"—
(How sweetly he says it)—I will.
Where's Pa?—there, I knew he'd forget it,
When the time came to give me away.
"I, Helena, take thee—love—cherish—
"And—well, I can't help it—"obey."
Here, Maud, take my bouquet—don't drop it!
(I hope Charley's not lost the ring;
Just like him no!—goodness how heavy!
It's really an elegant thing.
It's a shame to kneel down in white satin—
And the flounce, real old lace—but I must;
I hope that they've got a clean cushion,
They're usually covered with dust—
All over—ah, thanks,—now, don't fuss, Pa!—
Just throw back my veil, Charley—there—
Oh, bother, why couldn't he kiss me
Without mussing up all my hair,
Your arm, Charley, there goes the organ.
Who'd think think there would be such a crowd;
Oh, I must look 'round, I'd forgotten
See, Charley, who was it that bowed?
Why—it's Nellie Allaire, with her husband—
She's awfully jealous, I know;
Most all of my things are imported,
And she had a home-made trousseau,
And there's Annie Wheeler—Kate Hermon—
I didn't expect her at all—
If she is not in the same old blue satin
She wore at the Charity Ball,
Is that Fanny Wade? Edith Pearson—
And Emma and Jo—all the girls?
I know that they'd not miss my wedding—
I hope they'll all notice my pearls.
Is the carriage there?—give me my cloak, Jane—

Letter from New Hampshire.

DROUGHT, CROP PROSPECTS, HISTORICAL, &c.

FREMONT, N. H. June 26, 1871.

In riding through the southern part of this state, one sees, on every side, the indications of the long continued dry weather to which New Hampshire has been subjected. Commencing last year in the latter part of June the drought continued till October, scarcely a drop of rain falling to refresh the parched earth for four months. An open and dry winter followed. In this region where the snow is accustomed to lie upon the ground nearly six months out of the twelve, last season many a farmer did did not bring out his sleigh during the entire winter months. A dry spring succeeded a dry fall and winter, and the result can be easily foretold. Everything is backward. The hay crop will be less than half what it has been in former years. Indeed, I am told by some of the old residents that it will be the smallest yield ever known. The beautiful rains of the last two weeks have done this region a great service, but they come too late to redeem the hay crop.

Much of the corn planted, owing to the dry weather, never made its appearance and large fields have had to be re-planted; while in other places, that put in the ground early in the spring, has, since the rains, come up and is now growing rapidly. With plenty of moisture, and late frosts in the fall, New Hampshire's yield of corn will be about an average one.

Grain of all kinds, excepting wheat is looking poorly. The wheat fields do not appear to mind the droughts, and there is every prospects that those who sowed this grain will be abundantly paid for their labor. Unfortunately, there are but few farms in the state adapted to wheat raising, hence the income from this crop will not be large.

New Hampshire is the great fruit state of New England. More apples are sent from this state than from all the other five together. But this year the supply will be light. Farms which last season produced two to five hundred barrels of the best quality, will this year produce hardly enough to pay for gathering. Fruits of all other kinds are abundant.

This region, as well as your own beautiful Island, is rich in historic scenes. Indeed we can boast of an older history than can the people of Rhode Island. In 1629, Exetor, the shire town of this county, was settled, and soon the hardy pioneers had scattered themselves over the surrounding towns. Here was the favorite resort of the Pennacook Indians, and many were the depredations they committed upon the early inhabitants. Along the rivers and around many of the small lakes in this vicinity, have been found, from time to time ancient French Coins, and numerous Indian implements, such as jasper and quartz arrowheads, axes, gouges and hammers of various kinds. These are all carefully preserved by the inhabitants and are highly prized by their possessors.

A few miles from here, was established the first church in the state. The building was erected in 1633, being the same year that the settlement of the Island of Rhode Island was commenced. Rev. John Wheelwright, a brother-in-law of Anne Hutchinson, and contemporary with Oliver Cromwell in the university, was the first pastor.

Would time and space permit, we might mention many an interesting scene enacted in this section of New England during the old Indian and Revolutionary wars; but we forebear. We start today on our trip mountainward, an account of which we will endeavor to give the readers of the NEWS in our next letter. J. P. S.

Heligoland (be sure to put the emphasis on the last syllable) is an Island belonging to Great Britian, about as large as Long Island in Boston Harbor, and lies in the North Sea, some fifty miles off the coast of Germany. It has a population of three or four hundred poor pilots and fishermen and their families, who are always engaged in a hard struggle with want. It is a poor spot every way—so very mean that the people dare not pull up the little grass that grows on it for fear the sea will wash away the disintegrated soil and the Island disappear altogether. And yet its importance is such as a naval station in time of war, as to threaten the peace of Europe.

Enoch Arden on Long Island.

Twenty seven years a young and interesting couple were married in one of the principal villages of Queens county. The bride had been the belle of the village, and the groom, one and all said, would yet hold a commanding position in this country. Time passed, but from some unknown cause the young married couple did not prosper. At length the Californian fever broke out—Our young friend, imbued with the idea that his fortune could be made in the new country, left his wife and two children for the then unknown Eldorado. A few letters, and then the young wife lost trace of her husband. For four years she waited and mourned, and then for the sake of her children, who needed a protector and an education she accepted another husband.

The new family had been moderately prosperous. Although not possessing a large amount of this world's goods, they had enough to make life pleasant. The son and daughter were educated at the best schools; and if the wife thought of her lost husband at times, she was not unhappy with her new one. One Monday an arrival of more than passing importance to this family was announced in the village, and soon the former husband and father presented himself to his astonished wife. He made no recrimination, took all the blame on himself and made known his determination to not interfere with the present domestic arrangements. He wished to make proper acknowledgment, which he did, by making over to his son and daughter a large amount of property. It appears that on his first arrival in California he had been unfortunate in all his undertakings, and not wishing to write discouragingly he concluded not to write at all. Later he was successful beyond his fondest hopes, but delayed his departure from time to time until shame forbade his return. He has since left, and the tenor of life in that quiet household now flows on as of yore.—N. Y. Globe.

One of the curiosities of literature in besieged Paris was a volume called "The Beleaguered Cook," treating of the culinary art under the limits imposed upon it by the siege.

A Chinaman of Canton, China, named Lee Ping, and another of San Francisco, named Pon Jib, doing business together in the latter city, have made application to the patent office for a patent on a trade mark for their tea. This is the first application from the "Heathen Chinee" to the patent office.

Some Texas Indians attempting to get up a menagerie of their own, and commenced by stealing an elephant belonging to a travelling circus. They carried him to their village, where upon his arrival he assumed command, scattering Indians and wigwams promiscuously. Lo has abandoned the show business for the present.

Considerable excitement has been occasioned in Louisville for the past few nights, by a mysterious burglar, who enters houses cuts off the hair of sleeping ladies, throws the contents of their bureau drawers about the room, and then departs without carrying off anything.

A fancy dog show lately took place near London at which 800 rare canines were exhibited. Some were in wire cages, and had cushions to lie upon, while one valuable animal had a glass box for his accommodation. They were valued all the way from 5 lbs, to 1,000 lbs, a high price certainly for a mere ornamental pet. One gentleman—a clergyman—had 18, another 28 dogs on exhibition, and as the tax per year is $25 a head, exclusive of their keep, it can be judged what expense it is to gratify such a taste.

Instead of the old-fashioned method of using wax for polishing floors, soluble glass is now employed to great advantage. For this purpose the floor is first well cleaned, and then the cracks filled up with a cement of water-glass and powdered chalk or gypsum; afterward a water-glass of sixty five degrees, of the thickness of syrup, is applied by means of a stiff brush. Any desired color is imparted to the floor in a second coat of the water-glass, and additional coats are to be given until the requisite polish is obtained.

Summer Showers.

Summer showers frequently overtake persons and "wet them to the skin;" it is then safer to walk steadily and rapidly on, until the clothes become dry again, than to stop under a shelter and remain there still until the storm is over. If home is reached while the clothing is yet wet, take some hot drink instantly, a pint or more; go to the kitchen fire, remove every garment, rub the whole body with a coarse towel or flannel, put on woolen under clothing, get into bed wrap up warm, and take another hot drink; then go to sleep, if at night; if in the day-time, get up in an hour, dress and be active for the remainder of the day. Suppose you sit still, in the damp clothing: in a few minutes chilliness is observed, the cold "strikes in," and next morning there is a violent cold, or an attack of pleurisy, or pneumonia, which if not fatal in a week often requires weeks and months and weary years to get rid of. The short, sharp rule should be, if the clothing gets wet, change instantly, or work or walk actively; briskly until perfectly dry.—[Hall's Journal of Health.

Mixing with Strangers.

The effect of mixing with new people, who have new ideas and new methods of thought, is very salutary. Always to see the same people, do the same thing, feel the same way, produces a stagnant condition of the mind and heart that is very distressing to behold. There are thousands of invalids who might be greatly benefitted by getting away from home, if only for a short time to mix with strangers, and to be touched with the magnetism of the great world as it courses its accustomed rounds. And there are mental and moral invalids who need the same change, to get their minds and hearts enlarged, and let in a little more of the great light of life. Outside influences are very valuable to those who at home have been well trained by healthful influences in early youth, so that they can avoid the snares and pit falls into which those who go blindly often fall.—Ex.

Uses of Carbolic Acid.

The Journal of Applied Chemistry says: In pasting wall papers, posters, etc., especially where successive layers are put on, there arises a most disagreeable effluvia, which is particularly noticeable in damp weather. The cause of this is the decomposition of the paste. In close rooms it is very unwholesome, and often the cause of disease. In large manufactories, where large quantities of paste is used, it often becomes sour and offensive. Glue, also, has often a very disagreeable odor. If, when making paste or glue, a small quantity of carbolic acid is added, it will keep sweet and free from offensive smells. A few drops added, to mucilage or ink prevents mold. In whitewashing the cellar or dairy if an ounce of carbolic acid is added to each gallon of wash, it will prevent mold and the disagreeable taints often perceived in meats and milk from damp apartments.

Another great advantage in use of carbolic acid in paste for wall paper, and in whitewash, it will drive away cockroaches and other insect pests. The cheapest and best form of carbolic acid is crystal which dissolves in water or liquifies at an excess of temperature.

Summer Notes.

The editors of Maryland will make a trip to the White Mountains in July.

The Editorial Association of New Jersey have an excursion to Cape May to-day.—They will remain untill Saturday.

The first full dress hop of the season will be given at the Mansion House, Long Branch, on the evening of the Fourth of July. The music will be furnished by Dodworth's ful band.

Senator and Mrs Sprague have taken possession of their marine villa at Narragansett Pier for the season. In August they will be visited by Mr. and Mrs. William Hoyt, ne Kate Chase, daughter of Chief Justice Chase.

Bishop Simpson, of the Methodist Church, who went to Cape May, much impaired in health, has improved wonderfully, thanks to the invigorating sea air.

At Lake Mahopac the ladies spend most of the day rowing on the lake in pretty boats of all designs and shapes. In the evening they are hung with Chinese lanterns, and the effect upon the water from the note, piazza is very beautiful.

The Mammouth Cave in Kentucky, is said to present unusual attractions to the tourist this Summer, as well as to those seeking a pleasant Summer retreat. Aside from the wonders of the cave itself, the hotel has been refitted under the direction of the new proprietor, and presents superior accommodations to its guests.

The season at Cape May fairly commenced by the opening of the Stockton House this week, although the other hotels have been open since the first of the month. The season promises to be one of unusual gayety. The hotels all look fresh and clean, having undergone a complete renovation at the hands of the painters, carpenters, etc., and are fast filling up.

On the evening of the Fourth the grand naval ball, in honor of the New York Yacht Club, will take place at the Stockton House

Increase of Business.

We understand that since Messrs. Hibbard & Hawkins enlarged their piano and organ warerooms a few weeks since, that their business in their instruments has more than doubled. The demand for the Decker Brothers' instrument which had hitherto been rather limited, owing perhaps to its excellence and consequent high price, has become brisk. It is thought that Messrs. Hibbard & Hawkins have "hit the nail on the head" in taking the agency of the Bradbury piano, which, while it is voted by many to be among the best pianos in the market, is sold considerably below the figures charged for the leading instruments. They have also the low priced pianos built by Messrs. Voss & Son, of Boston. These are said to be very good pianos, and it is obvious at a glance that they are put up in very elaborate cases. When it is announced that their price is only $275, it seems plausible that the rapid sales claimed for the Voss are correct. In speaking of this house it should not be forgotten that here may be found also the sox harmed organs, built at Cambridge, Mass., by Messrs. George Woods & Co. The alleged fact that, despite the numerous builders whose organs are undeniably excellent, are straining every nerve to crush out competition, the organs of Messrs. Woods & Co, are selling with increased rapidity every week, ought to have its effect on the minds of those who contemplate purchasing.

A Phi Beta Kappa Ode.

Extracts from a poem read by Rev. C. T. Brooks at the Brown University Commencement.

Poets have sung,
In every tongue,
And lonely lot on this thorny earth,
Some legend of the lofty birth,
Of Poesy their heavenly Queen.
Who has not seen—
How, in both continents, have old and young
Delighted hung
On that immortal page
That seems a wail from the best Grecian age,
Where Laureate and Limner joined in glory
Relte the wondrous and enchanting story
Of winged "Pegasus in the yoke."
The fiery horse that could not be broke,
And would not be bound.
Of Pegasus in the market place,
Compelled to exhibit (a foul disgrace)
To a coarse grained crowd his points and pace,
The picture is world renowned.
Oh the brutal jeers, as the lash cut in
Through the glossy silk of that snow white skin!
Belabored and battered through field and street,
In mud and mire, and dust and heat,—
Who could look on without shame and grief?
And who did not breath a long sigh of relief,
When, one bright day—
The glorious creature broke away
From harness and trace indignantly,
And soared aloft to his native sky.
That marvellous tale
Shall not soon grow stale—
The charm shall endure till Schiller shall die
But the story's counterpart; lurks hard by,
Less handsome and painfuller still to rehearse
In prose or in verse,
What poet has told
Of late or of old,
The fate of a dray horse aspiring to fly?
O spectacle too tragic for laugh,
And yet too comical for tears by half—
To see the awkward flounderings,
Of a poor beast improvising wings
With his horny feet,
Speedily proving his terrestrial birth
By sprawling on his native earth;
The only salve for his aching bones.
Bruised by his heavy lightings on the stones,
The ironic salve of the grinning street!

But word or phrase of mine are all too weak,
The key note of the immortal song today to speak.
Why am I here? Haply beside the sea,
My thin Aeolian harp some melody,
Might catch from ocean's breeze or murmuring wave,)
On beach, or cliff, or in some pebbly cave.
How shall your minstrel on this festal day,
With an Aeolian harp the strain essay,
That should with clarion tones inspire the band,
Of souls that fain would march to Truth's majestic land.
When stood the Coliseum—not the one
Whose gray walls glisten in a Roman sun:
The intellectual one you here have known,
Builded of thought and genius—not of stone.
While stood your Coliseum, there were men
And women, too, who held the poet's pen;
Would one of such might speak for me to-day,
The word a scholar's brother's heart would say.
Alas! the voice, that with a trumpet clang
Old Baron Rudiger's last banquet sang,
Is hushed—he hears and joins with deep soul breath
A nobler song of triumph over Death.
*He who, when early morning's reddening fire
Tinged with a rosy gleam the old church spire,
Watched with a child's delight the sun tipped wing—
The poise, the curve, the restless fluttering,
And all the gambols of the airy flock
Of laughing swallows round the weather-cock,
And heard the homely preaching, keen and wise,
That fell from that old neighbor of the skies,
In purer, loftier sunrise glories now,
He bathes his kindled and adoring brow.
His soul is touched with finer airs from Heaven,
Than in these confines dim to us are given,
And sees and hears above with sense new born,
The hues and tones of the eternal morn,

Another swan song sadly lingers here,
Of him† whose harp in many a by gone year,
Entranced our hearts with sweet and silvery notes,
Still round these walls the mournful echo floats.
Thy fair, frail bark, youthful eslid oar,
Is moored in silence on the eternal shore.

* * * * *

From the blue waves of Narragansett,
Full oft my spirit makes its transit,—
On Fancy's free and airy pinion,
Defying space and time's dominion,
To where, on Mediterranean waters,
Among the sea's fair island daughters,
As if just risen amid the pæan
Of beauty, from the broad Aegean,
Enchanting Rhodes, the isle of roses,
Soft as a floating swan reposes,
And still amid the spirits dreaming,
I seem to see my own skies beaming,
And in the music of the motion,
That rocks my soul I feel the ocean,
That with its multitudious glances,
Around Rhode Islands' green shore dances.

Abraham's Block.

This beautifully located building opposite the Bath road, with its extensive stores is now open for the season. Thomas Galvin & Co's. florists storewill be opened in a most superb style; Madame Douglass of New York will have a fine assortment, and why not? This lady goes to Europe twice every year. Mr. Schultzer's stock of Turkish carpets and rugs is the finest and largest in the country, and last though not least, is Mr A's store of Japanese Goods which makes truly a wonderful and rare collection.

Agricultural Items.

The Sycamore (Ill.) Republican says: "Immense fields of corn have been planted this season by itinerant corn planters, who take jobs at 25 cents an acre. With a man a boy, a machine, and two horses, they plant 20 acres a day."

The agricultural society of Breslau, Germany, offers a prize of $780 in Gold for the steam plough apparatus which will work best at trials to be made on farms near that city this summer.

The rural world says that the curculio is becoming almost as destructive to peaches as to plums. It is almost impossible to find a single peach uninjured by this insect some years.

No accidents have ever occurred from burning, storing or handling Pratt's Astral Oil. Over 100,000 families, who continue to use it, can testify to its perfect safety. It gives also a clear, soft and beautiful light—unequalled even by gas.

The worst Coughs yield, as if by magic, to the wonderful curative powers of Dr. Pierce's Alt. Ext. or Golden Medical Discovery. It also surpasses anything else ever before discovered for the cure of Pimples, Blotches and Rashes on the face; also for Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, and all Skin and Scrofulous diseases. Sold by druggists.

For Chilblains, Corns, Bunions, Frozen Limbs, Felons, Bistees, Burns, Cuts, &c., wrap up with a cloth and wet with the Lotion. It will take the fire out of the worst kind of Burns as soon is applied, giving instant relief.

The Universal Safeguard.

It is useless for State Legislatures to pass laws for the preservation of the public health, if the great law of self preservation which depends for its enforcement upon the will of the individual, is suffered to remain a dead letter.

There is scarcely an adult member of the community, of either sex ion of the country, who has not seen the testimony in favor of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, furnished over their own signatures by persons of acknowledged eminence in science, literature, art, commerce, and every department of business and professional life. These witnesses have declared in the most explicit terms that the preparation is a safeguard against epidemics, a sovereign remedy for dyspepsia, a valuable antibilious medicine, a strengthening of the nerves, a general invigorant, a protection against the deleterious effects of malaria and impure water, and that it imparts a degree of vigor and activity to the vital forces which is not communicated by any other of the tonics and stomachics in use. Under these circumstances the self preservative law of nature should teach every rational person who, either by reason of inherent debility or in consequence of exposure to unwholesome influences, is in peril of losing the greatest of all temporal blessings, health, the importance of using the Bitters as a defensive medicine. Dyspeptics who neglect to give a trial are simply their own enemies. It is guaranteed to cure indigestion in all its forms, and the bilious and nervous will find nothing in the whole range of officinal and proprietary medicines which will afford them the same relief.

Centralization is one of the bugbears of American politics. Every business man desires it. The AMERICAN HOUSE, BOSTON, offers not only sumptuous and quiet suites of rooms to families, but the very centre of business to merchants and commercial travelers.

Valuable Hints.

A regular habit of body is absolutely essential to physical health and clearness of intellect. Nor is this all. Beauty of person cannot co-exist with an unnatural condition of the bowels. A free passage of the refuse matter of the system through these natural waste pipes, is as necessary to the purity of the body as the free passage of the offal of a city through its sewers is necessary to the health of its inhabitants.

Indigestion is the primary cause of most of the diseases of the discharging organs, and one of its most common results is constipation. This complaint, besides being dangerous in itself, has many disagreeable concomitants—such as an unpleasant breath, a sallow skin, contaminating blood and bile, hemorrhoids, headache, loss of memory and general debility.

Hostetter's Stomach Bitters remove all these evils by removing their immediate cause in the digestive organs, and regulating the action of the intestines. The combination of properties in this celebrated preparation is one of its chief merits. It is not merely a stimulant or a tonic, or an antibilious agent, or a nervine, or a blood depurent, or a cathartic, but all these curative elements judiciously blended in one powerful restorative. It lends activity and vigor to the inert and enervated stomach, relieves the alimentary canal of its obstructions, and gives tone to the membrane which lines it, gently stimulates the liver, braces the nerves, and cheers the animal spirits. No other remedy possesses such a variety of hygienic virtues. It is to these characteristics that it owes its prestige as a household medicine. Experience has proved that it is as harmless as it is efficacious, and hence it is as popular with the weaker sex as with the stronger.

Hostetter's Stomach Bitters are sold in bottles only, and the trade-mark blown in the glass and engraved on the label, is the test of genuineness. Beware of counterfeits.

THE Eastern Railroad Company have hung the ash in four new passenger cars, now in daily use on that road, with Glass Window Pulleys, and their Master Car Builder says of them "I consider the Glass Pulley with weights, all that could be desired as a window fixture for railway cars."

Made by American Glass Window Pulley Co., No. 39 Bowker street, Boston. jo

All powders and outward applications close up the pores of the skin, rendering it harsh, coarse and dabby, and in a short time destroy the complexion. If you would have a Fresh, Healthy and Youthful appearance, purge the system thoroughly: use HELMBOLD'S GRAPE PILLS and HELMBOLD'S SARSAPARILLA which beautifies the complexion. Beware of those cheap patent pills, carelessly prepared by inexperienced persons—vended in wooden boxes—most of which contain either calomel, mercury or other deleterious drugs. n&j

Pratt's Astral Oil took the first premium for safety and best oil at American Institute Fair for 1869 and 1870. This should be remembered by all who use kerosene. It is undoubtedly the safest illuminating oil ever made.

With Children Where the Skin is Broken, use Bartone's Lotion,

Dilute with two-thirds water before using, but adults can use full strength. 26

Consumption,

ITS CURE AND ITS PREVENTIVE,

By J. H. SCHENCK, M. D.

Many a human being has passed away, for whose death there was no other reason than the neglect of known and indisputably proved means of cure. Those near and dear to family and friends are sleeping the dreamless slumber into which, had they calmly adopted and availed themselves of his wonderfully efficacious medicines, they would not have fallen.

Dr. Schenck has in his own case proven that wherever sufficient vitality remains, that vitality, by his medicines and his directions for their use, is quickened into healthful vigor.

In this statement there is nothing presumptuous. To the faith of the invalid is made no representation that is not a thousand times substantiated by living and visible works. The theory of the cure by Dr. Schenck's medicines is as simple as it is unfailing. Its philosophy requires no argument. It is self assuring, self-convincing.

The Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills are the first two weapons with which the citadel of the malady is assailed. Two-thirds of the cases of consumption originate in dyspepsia and a functionally disordered liver. With this condition the bronchial tubes "sympathize" with the stomach. They respond to the morbific action of the liver. Here, then comes the culminating result, and the setting in, with all its distressing symptoms, of

CONSUMPTION.

The Mandrake Pills are composed of one of Nature's noblest gifts—the Podophillum Peltatum. They possess all the blood-searching, alterative properties of calomel, but unlike calomel, they

"LEAVE NO STING BEHIND."

The work of cure is now beginning. The vitiated and mucous deposits in the bowels and in the alimentary canal are ejected. The liver, like a clock, is wound up. It arouses from its torpidity. The stomach acts responsively, and the patient begins to feel that he is getting, at last,

A SUPPLY OF GOOD BLOOD.

The Seaweed Tonic, in conjunction with the Pills, permeates and assimilates with the food. Chylification is now progressing, without its previous tortures. Digestion becomes painless, and the cure is seen to be at hand. There is no more flatulence, no exacerbation of the stomach. An appetite sets in.

Now comes the greatest Blood Purifier ever yet given by an indulgent father to suffering man. Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup comes in to perform its functions and to hasten and complete the cure. It enters at once upon its work. Nature cannot be cheated. It collects and ripens the impaired and diseased portions of the lungs. In the form of gatherings it prepares them for expectoration, and lo! in a very short time the malady is vanquished, the rotten throne that it occupied is renovated and made new, and the patient, in all the dignity of regained vigor, steps forth to enjoy the manhood or womanhood that was GIVEN UP AS LOST.

The second thing is, the patients must stay in a warm room until they get well; it is almost impossible to prevent taking cold when the lungs are diseased, but it must be prevented or a cure cannot be effected. Fresh air and riding out, especially in this section of the country in the fall and winter season, are all wrong. Physicians who recommend that course lose their patients, if their lungs are badly diseased; and yet, because they are in the house they must not sit down quiet; they must walk about the room as much and as fast as the strength will bear, to get up a good circulation of blood. The patients must keep in good spirits—be determined to get well. This has a great deal to do with the appetite, and is the great point to gain.

To despair of cure after such evidence of its possibility in the worst cases, and moral certainty in all others, is sinful. Dr. Schenck's personal statement to the Faculty of his own cure was in these modest words:

"Many years ago I was in the last stages of consumption; confined to my bed, and at one time my physicians thought that I could not live a week; then like a drowning man catching at straws, I heard of, and obtained the preparations which I now offer to the public, and they made a perfect cure of me. It seemed to me that I could feel them penetrate my whole system. They soon ripened the matter in my lungs, and I would spit up more than a pint of offensive yellow matter every morning for a long time. As soon as that began to subside, my cough, fever, pains and night sweats all began to leave me, and my appetite became so great that it was with difficulty that I could keep from eating too much. I soon gained my strength, and have grown in flesh ever since."

"I was weighed shortly after my recovery," added the Doctor, "then looking like a mere skeleton; my weight was only ninety-seven pounds; my present weight is two hundred and twenty-five (225) pounds, and for years I have enjoyed uninterrupted health."

Dr. Schenck has discontinued his professional visits to New York and Boston. He or his son, Dr. J. H. Schenck, Jr., still continue to see patients at their office, No. 15 North Sixth street, Philadelphia, every Saturday from 9 A. M. to 3 P. M. Those who wish a thorough examination with the Respirometer will be charged $5. The Respirometer declares the exact condition of the lungs, and patients can readily learn whether they are curable or not.

The directions for taking the medicines are adapted to the intelligence even of a child. Follow these directions, and kind Nature will do the rest, excepting that in some cases the Mandrake Pills are to be taken in increased doses; the three medicines need no other accompaniments than the ample instructions that accompany them: First, create appetite. Of returning health hunger is the most welcome symptom. When it comes, as it will come, let the despairing at once be of good cheer. Good blood at once follows, the cough loosens, the night sweat is abated. In a short time both of these morbid symptoms are gone forever.

Dr. Schenck's medicines are constantly kept in tens of thousands of families. As a laxative or purgative, the Mandrake Pills are a standard preparation, while the Pulmonic Syrup, as a cure of coughs and colds, may be regarded as a prophylacteric against consumption in any of its forms.

Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Seaweed Tonic, $1.50, a bottle, or $7.50 a half dozen. Mandrake Pills 25 cents a box. For sale by all druggists and dealers.

THE

New Orleans, Mobile and Texas

RAILROAD COMPANY

Are building a first-class railroad, from Mobile, Alabama, to Houston, Texas, a distance of 475 miles. The stockholders have paid in, and already expended upon the work, nearly TEN MILLION DOLLARS, and two-thirds of the entire road has been built. It is believed that no other railroad corporation in the country has ever made so large an expenditure from its own means, before offering any of its securities to the public.

Among the leading stockholders are HON. E. D. MORGAN, HON. JOHN A. GRISWOLD, MESSRS. MORTON, BLISS & CO., J. & W. SELIGMAN & CO., L. VON HOFFMAN & CO., JAMES H. BANKER, HARRISON DURKEE, JOHN STEWARD, and other well known capitalists.

The Company now offer for sale the Eight Per Cent Mortgage Bonds.

upon that part of the line west of the Mississippi River which is considered so important to Louisiana that state aid, to the amount of $5,500,000, has been granted or guaranteed to the enterprise.

The Bonds are of two classes:

FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS,

to the amount of $12,500 per mile, and

SECOND MORTGAGE BONDS.

to an equal amount, the principal and interest of the latter being guaranteed by the State of Louisiana.— The price of the two classes is the same, and subscribers can take their choice.

The Bonds are only in the denomination of $1 000 or £200 each, interest payable January and July, at the rates of eight per cent. currency in New York or seven per cent, gold in London, at the option of the holder, at the time each coupon is due. Bonds can be registered if desired.

One thousand dollars invested in these eight per cent. bonds will give the purchaser more than seventy seven per cent. greater annual interest than the same amount invested in the new Government Five Per Cents.

The Bonds are dated May 1, 1871. The first coupon will, therefore, be a fractional one running from May 1 to July 1. The price is 90, and accrued interest at 8 per cent, currency from May 1. to date of remittance.

Car Scene.

"I say conductor do you know who is that young lady there with the book?"

"Yes I've seen her before."

"But Jove, she's splendid."

"Where does she live?"

"In Chicago, I believe."

"I'd like to occupy that seat with her, if that would not be out of order."

"It would not be if she is willing to have you occupy it. Of course you claim to be a gentleman."

"Oh! certainly. If you are acquainted with her, give me an introduction to her, if you have no objections."

"Certainly not."

"Do you know how far she is going?"

"To Rochester."

"Give me an introduction by all means."

Fixing his hair, mustache and whiskers in a killing style, he followed the conductor who on reaching the seat where the lady sat, said, with a peculiar twinkle in his eye;

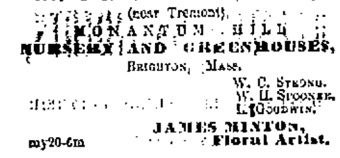

"My wife, Mr.———, of New York, who assures me he will die before reaching Detroit if he does not form your acquaintance."

The gentleman stammered, stuttered, grew red in the face, faltered out some excuse, and returned to his seat leaving the lady in company with her husband to enjoy the joke.

$500 WILL BE FORFEITED BY DR. L. DIX if failing to cure in less time than any other physician, more effectually and permanently, with less restraint from occupation or fear of exposure to all weather, with safe and pleasant medicines.

SELF ABUSE AND SOLITARY HABITS,
Their effects and consequences;
SPECIAL AILMENTS AND SITUATIONS
Incident to Married and Single Ladies
SECRET AND DELICATE DISORDERS;
Mercurial Affections, Eruptions and all Diseases of the Skin; Ulcers of the Nose, Throat and Body; Pimples on the Face; Swellings of the Joints; Nervousness; Constitutional and other Weaknesses in Youth, and the more advanced, at all ages, of BOTH SEXES, SINGLE OR MARRIED.

DR. L. DIX'S
PRIVATE MEDICAL OFFICE,
No. 21 Endicott Street, Boston, Mass.,
is so arranged that patients never see or hear each other. Recollect the ONLY entrance to his Office is No. 21, having no connection with his residence, consequently no family interruption, so that on no account can any person hesitate applying at his office.

boldly asserts (and it cannot be contradicted, except by Quacks, who will do or say anything, even perjure themselves, to impose upon patients) that he is the only regular graduate physician advertising in Boston.

TWENTY YEARS
engaged in treatment of Special Diseases, a fact so well known to many Citizens, Publishers, Merchants, Hotel Proprietors, &c., that he is much recommended, and particularly to Strangers and Travelers.

To avoid and escape Imposition of Foreign and Native Quacks, more numerous in Boston than other large cities.

DR. L. DIX
proudly refers to Professors and respectable Physicians—many of whom consult him in critical cases, because of his acknowledged skill and reputation, attained through so long experience, practice and observation.

AFFLICTED AND UNFORTUNATE!
be not robbed and add to your sufferings in being deceived by the lying boasts, misrepresentations, false promises and pretensions of
FOREIGN AND NATIVE QUACKS, who know little of the nature and character of Special Diseases, and less as to their cure. Some exhibit forged Diplomas of Institutions or Colleges which never existed in any part of the world; others exhibit Diplomas of the Dead, how obtained, unknown; not only assuming and advertising in names of those inserted in the Diplomas, but to further their imposition assume names of other most celebrated Physicians long since dead. Neither be deceived by QUACK NOSTRUM MAKERS,
through false certificates, and references, and recommendations of their medicines by the dead, who cannot expose or contradict them; or who, besides, to further their imposition, copy from Medical books much that is written of the qualities and effects of different herbs and plants, and ascribe all the same to their Pills, Extracts, Specifics, &c., most of which, if not all, contain Mercury, because of the ancient belief of its "curing everything," but now known to "kill more than it cures," and those not killed, constitutionally injured for life.

IGNORANCE OF QUACK DOCTORS AND NOSTRUM MAKERS.

Through the ignorance of the Quack Doctor, knowing no other remedy, he relies upon MERCURY, and gives it to all his patients in Pills, Drops, &c., so the Nostrum Maker, equally ignorant, adds to his so-called Extracts, Specific, Antidote, &c., both relying upon its effects in curing a few in a hundred, it is trumpeted in various ways throughout the land; but, alas! nothing is said of the balance; some of whom die, others grow worse, and are left to linger and suffer for months or years until relieved or cured, if possible, by competent physicians.

BUT ALL QUACKS ARE NOT IGNORANT.

Notwithstanding the foregoing facts are known to some Quack Doctors and Nostrum Makers, yet, regardless of the life and health of others, there are those among them who will perjure themselves, contradicting giving mercury to their patients or that it is contained in their Nostrums, so that the "usual fee" may be obtained for professedly curing, or "the dollar" or "fraction of it" may be obtained for the Nostrum. It is thus that many are deceived also, and uselessly spend large amounts for experiments with quackery.

charges are very moderate. Communications sacredly confidential, and all may rely on him with the strictest secrecy and confidence, whatever may be the disease, condition or situation of any one, married or single.

TO THE LADIES.—The celebrated DR. L. DIX particularly invites all ladies who need a Medical or Surgical adviser, to call at his Rooms, No. 21 Endicott Street, Boston, Mass., which they will find arranged for their special accommodation.

Dr. DIX having devoted over twenty years to this particular branch of the treatment of all diseases peculiar to females, it is now conceded by all (both in this country and in Europe) that he excels all other known practitioners in the safe, speedy and effectual treatment of all female complaints.

His medicines are prepared with the express purpose of removing all diseases, such as debility, weakness, unnatural suppressions, enlargements of the womb, also all discharges which flow from a morbid state of the blood. The Doctor is now fully prepared to treat in his peculiar style, both medically and surgically, all diseases of the female sex, and they are respectfully invited to call at
